Personal Information:

Family members- Husband – Bill, 4 horses, 3 dogs, and 2 cats

Involvement with horses (or other equine)- My husband and I purchased our first horses in 1994. Over the years we have done limited distance endurance rides, hunter paces, dressage, lower level eventing and trail riding. A favorite pastime is to go camping with the horses. We have also bred Irish Draught Sporthorses for eventing.

Education- High School and extensive college Business courses.

Work background- Controller – Community Journals, LLC publishers of the Greenville, Spartanburg and Anderson Journals. Prior to the Journal - Controller TFP Inc., a manufacture of computerized mug shot systems for Law Enforcement agencies. Before moving in to the accounting arena I spent 10 years in sales.

Special skills, talents, or interests- Computer programming utilizing Domino Designer and Visual Basic. I developed a proprietary ad order entry system allowing Community Journals to add two new newspapers without adding any additional accounting staff.

Other organization involvement- Corporate Solicitor – United Way of Greenville County, Loaned Executive – United Way of Greenville County. Past Chair Friday Focus Committee - Small Business Services Board of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce.

Hobbies (other than equine) – Gardening, needlework, sewing and reading

Other valuable information- Vacations are usually spent at the Kentucky Horse Park attending the Rolex Three Day Event.
